

THE MERION CRICKET CLUB DRESS POLICY AND HOURS OF OPERATION

DRESS POLICY

To accommodate the membership while maintaining the valued attributes of the Club, please honor the following Dress Policy.

FURNESS ROOM AND FURNESS PORCH: Appropriate attire for men includes dress slacks or Bermuda-style shorts and a collared shirt. We encourage men to wear a jacket; however, a tie is optional. Examples of acceptable attire for women include business slacks, dress capris, skirts, blouses or sweaters. The following are not considered appropriate: athletic attire, denim, cargo pants/shorts, flip flops, Crocs or sandals (men only).

CRICKET ROOM: Appropriate attire for men includes slacks (khakis and denim) or Bermuda-style shorts and a collared shirt. Examples of acceptable attire for women include slacks, capris, skirts, denim, blouses or sweaters. The following are not considered appropriate: cargo pants/shorts, t-shirts, athletic attire except as noted below, sweat pants/shirts, flip flops, or Crocs or sandals (men only). The Club requests upscale Furness dress in the Cricket Room for Sunday Brunch.

SPORTS LOUNGE AND SPORTS DECK: Appropriate attire includes pants or shorts in good condition; men's shirts must have sleeves, though casual shirts do not require a collar. White Athletic Attire and Club appropriate denim are permitted.

Additional Clarification:

- White Athletic Attire is permitted in the Cricket Room and the Furness Porch until 3 p.m.
- The following items are NOT permitted on Club grounds: any clothing that is worn, tattered, frayed, patched, discolored or otherwise in disrepair, cut-off shorts, tank tops, or t-shirts with offensive graphics or verbiage.
- Athletic hats, including ball caps and visors, should be removed upon entering the Clubhouse.
- Children's attire should reflect the same guidelines.
- To ensure a positive dining experience and to avoid potential issues with attire, The Merion Cricket Club requires that members inform their guests of the Club's Dress Policy.
